

Terms & Liability Waiver

Draft for legal review · Last updated September 2026 · embersociety.la/waiver

These terms apply to everyone who takes part in an Ember Society class or event, whether you bought a ticket yourself or were booked in as part of a private group. Please read them before you attend.

01 Assumption of risk

Lagree is a high-intensity form of exercise performed on spring-loaded equipment. Participation carries inherent risks, including muscle strain, sprains, falls, and in rare cases serious injury. Some risks cannot be removed no matter how carefully a class is run.

By taking part in an Ember Society class or event, you accept those risks voluntarily and confirm that you are choosing to participate.

02 Health and medical acknowledgement

You confirm that you are in good enough physical health to take part, and that you have considered any condition, injury, surgery, or pregnancy that may affect your participation. If you are unsure, speak with a medical professional before class.

Tell your instructor about anything relevant before class begins so movements can be adjusted for you. Stop immediately and tell an instructor if you feel pain, dizziness, faintness, or shortness of breath.

Ember Society does not provide medical advice, and our instructors are not acting as medical professionals.

03 Following instruction and using the equipment

Every class begins with a walkthrough of the machine. You agree to follow your instructor's directions, to use the equipment only as demonstrated, and to ask if you are unsure how something works.

Grip socks are required. You are responsible for using the machine within your own limits and for choosing to modify or stop at any point.

04 Venues and locations

Our classes take place at locations we do not own or control, including private homes, offices, rooftops, storefronts, markets, and outdoor spaces. Surfaces may be uneven, weather may change, and conditions vary from event to event.

You agree to follow any rules of the venue we are hosted by, and to take reasonable care for your own safety in the space around you. We may adjust, pause, relocate, or cancel a class where conditions make it unsafe to continue.

05 Emergency medical treatment

If you are injured or become unwell at an event, you consent to us seeking emergency medical care on your behalf, and to receiving treatment from emergency responders. You are responsible for the cost of any treatment or transport.

06 Photography and media

Photography and video are sometimes captured at our events for promotional use. By attending, you agree that we may use images in which you appear.

If you would prefer not to be photographed, tell an instructor before class begins and we will accommodate you.

07 Conduct

We ask everyone to treat instructors, guests, vendors, venue staff, and equipment with respect. We may ask anyone behaving unsafely or disruptively to leave an event, without a refund.

08 Age requirement

Ember Society classes and events are for participants aged 18 and over. By signing, you confirm that you are at least 18 years old. We may ask for identification.

09 Release of liability

To the fullest extent permitted by law, you release Ember Society, its founders, instructors, contractors, partners, vendors, and venue hosts from claims, demands, and causes of action arising out of your participation in a class or event, including those arising from ordinary negligence.

This release does not apply to gross negligence, recklessness, or willful misconduct, and nothing here limits any right that cannot be waived under California law.

10 Booking, cancellations and refunds

Tickets to our events are non-refundable and non-transferable. They cannot be cancelled, rescheduled, or moved to a different date, so please be sure before you book.

If we have to cancel an event, we will either move you to a rescheduled date or refund your ticket.

Private bookings are quoted individually, and any deposit or cancellation terms are agreed with you as part of that quote.

11 Changes to these terms

We may update these terms as our events change. The version published here at the time of your event is the one that applies.

Context for review: Ember Society is a traveling Lagree fitness business in Greater Los Angeles, operating pop-up classes at third-party and outdoor venues, private events at client locations, and vendor/brand activations. Equipment is transported and set up on site. Participants are 18+. Agreement is currently collected as a terms-acceptance checkbox at Stripe checkout rather than a separately signed waiver; the buyer may not be the participant. Questions: embersociety.la@gmail.com
